

INTERNATIONAL TRADE CENTRE UNCTAD/GATT
World directory of trade promotion organizations and other foreign trade bodies
Geneva, 1994.

Directory of trade promotion organizations and other national bodies involved in international trade - includes foreign trade ministries, trade promotion organizations, import promotion offices, chambers of commerce in principal trading areas/overseas territories and/or federations of commerce, some public trade organizations and, in a separate chapter, selected regional/interregional organizations; lists organizations in (English) alphabetical order of countries with addresses, telephone, telex and telefax numbers, cable codes and an indication of main types of activities.

The Joint Advisory Group on the International Trade Centre UNCTAD/GATT has recommended that the Centre prepare and publish a reference book of bodies involved in international trade. This recommendation was also taken up within the framework of the Joint UNDP/ITC evaluation of the ITC programme entitled Institutional Infrastructure for Trade Promotion at the National Level. The World Directory of Trade Promotion Organizations and Foreign Trade Bodies was issued in response to this recommendation.

The aim of the Directory is to provide developing countries with a reference book of useful addresses that will help establish contacts with, and encourage a direct flow of information between bodies responsible for facilitating and promoting international trade. Within the context of Technical and Economic Co-operation among Developing Countries (TCDC/ECDC) it is particularly important to increase direct links between organizations responsible for foreign trade and trade promotion in developing countries.

The Directory includes trade promotion focal points known to ITC, such as ministries of foreign trade, trade promotion organizations, import promotion offices, chambers of commerce in principal trading areas and/or federations of chambers of commerce and some public trade organizations. A separate chapter includes selected regional/interregional organizations. Telephone, telex and telefax numbers, cable addresses are included to facilitate communication. Where possible, an indication of the main types of activities carried out by the organizations is given. The information provided is based on replies received from individual foreign trade bodies to a standard questionnaire circulated by ITC. Other sources, in particular trade directories, have also been used.

Governments of countries or territories that are not adequately covered, or for which incomplete or incorrect information is shown, are requested to provide ITC with the appropriate information for inclusion in subsequent issues of the Directory.
